ASU Organ Studio Tour • A Photo Essay

In June 2019, the ASU Organ Studio took a trip to France under the guidance of their professor, Kimberly Marshall. Join the students in a remarkable journey in and around Paris, including notable instruments such as Ste. Trinité, Poitiers, St. Sulpice, La Madeleine, and St. Gervais. The interactive photo essay, written by DMA candidate Karen Taylor and published online by Emma Whitten, includes photographs (some of which are shown here) and videos to immerse yourself in the distinctive sound of these Cavaillé-Coll and Clicquot organs. You can even enjoy a panoramic view from the terrace of the Duruflé apartment! Click here to read!

*The Organ—grandest instrument the hand of man has placed in Music's galaxy:
In which all Nature's wondrous sounds are linked
In golden chains of countless harmonies.
Responsive to the touch of man's weak hands
As if a giant's fingers swept its keys
And called concordant voices from the depths,
The diapason of the storm-struck sea,
The thunder's peal, the wind's wild whistling wail,
The songs of swift-winged warblers in the air.
And the soft sighing of the ambient breeze.
Temple of Tone art thou! The shrine supreme of Sound's mysterious powers and richest gifts.
God-given thought alone could have inspired
The human mind to frame so grand a work:
Great Organ—Monarch of all Instruments!*
